

Stella Wutete

Stella holds a Bachelor of Laws Degree from the University of South Africa. She has amassed a wealth of knowledge and skill working in various sectors including private practice and the corporate sector. She has been involved in high value mergers and acquisition transactions involving foreign investors. Stella has also played a pivotal role in setting up the legal structures as well as providing legal advice for a Building Society during its inception. She is experienced in consultancy and facilitating trans-national and other corporate transactions. She has a keen interest and strength in building business relationships. Stella has recently expanded her legal forte into developmental and non-Governmental work, bringing her legal experience in building structures in social development. Due to her exposure to the challenges faced by women, and more particularly those of the grassroots living in the marginalized parts of the country's urban, peri-urban and rural areas, in meeting their obligations as the integral persons in the home and family structures, Stella has played a role in providing the legal framework in various community developmental programmes. She also holds an A2 Delf Diploma in French obtained through the Centre International D'études Pedagogiques which allows her basic communication and translation skills. She intends to advance her studies in French in due course. Stella is a single mother of one. She lives in Harare, Zimbabwe. She enjoys traveling, playing golf, watching sport and has a keen interest in gastronomy. Stella enjoys networking both socially and professionally.
