

Quinton Newcomb

Managing Partner FOUR Law & Investigations Ltd

Quinton has over 15 years of experience in commercial crime, initially at the independent Bar, where he prosecuted and defended in cases, including serious fraud and money laundering, and - for the past 8 years - as a senior lawyer and Managing Partner in a specialist commercial crime boutique firm.

He is a founder member and the Managing Partner of FOUR. FOUR is a specialist law practice delivering premium advice, extraordinary insight, and meaningful partnership across compliance, internal investigations, and commercial crime. The unique perspective that FOUR provide for their clients is informed by their experience of acting as advocates and as litigators, for witnesses and for suspects, for individuals and for corporates. Quinton has acted for clients involved in a series of some of the most high-profile SFO investigations of the past decade, including Rolls-Royce, Rio Tinto, Alstom, and ENRC. In addition, Quinton has extensive experience of advising corporate clients upon compliance procedures and delivering compliance training (including anti-money laundering training) to multinationals and other law firms alike. Quinton was appointed a criminal Recorder (part-time Crown Court judge) on the South Eastern Circuit in 2020.

Commonwealth
Law Conference 2021