

Tadala Peggy Chinkwezule

Council member for SADC Lawyers Association and Head of Division of the Malawi Law Society Junior Lawyers Division

Tadala Peggy Chinkwezule is a Malawian Lawyer with over 10 years of practice experience and was admitted as Notary Public in 2019. She holds a Masters Degree in Human Rights and Democratisation in Africa from University of Pretoria and a Bachelor of Laws Degree Upper Second Class (Hons) from University of Malawi. She holds Certificates in Corporate Governance and; in Business Development and Entrepreneurship.

She is the Legal Services Manager for AHL Group PLC and serves as Company Secretary for AHL Commodities Exchange. She is a contributor of a weekly newspaper column “The Legal Hub” in the Malawian Sunday Times. She has authored diverse articles including ‘Corporate Governance within the regime of the Companies Act 2013’ (Institute of Chartered Accountants in Malawi 2019) and ‘Should practice rules and/or bar associations make pro bono legal services mandatory for lawyers’ (International Bar Association, Pro Bono Committee Publications, 2019).

Commonwealth
Law Conference 2021

In 2019 she was a Speaker at the ICAM Corporate Guru's Conference. She was recognised as one of the 100 Women Lawyers of 2021 by Courtroom Mail and as Member of the Year 2020 by Women Lawyers Association (Malawi).

She is a Fellow of YALI Regional Leadership Centre in South Africa and the International Lawyers for Africa program in United Kingdom. She is a Council Member for SADC Lawyers Association, Head of Division of the Malawi Law Society Junior Lawyers Division, Member of the Digital Skills and Innovations Grants Committee, Board Director of NGO Board and Director of Standing Voice. From 2017 to date, she has undertaken over 20 in person mentorship programs with over 1000 youth. Through Estac Events, a marketing and events management firm she founded, she has propelled over 600 small and medium businesses in Malawi.

She is married to Esau and they have two lovely children, Joshua and Ruth.