

Desiree A A Artesi.

Desiree was called to the Bar of England Wales in October 1998 by Inner Temple. Desiree has a predominantly Privy Council practice.

Desiree also has a diverse civil and commercial practice, including all aspects of property, public law and judicial review. Desiree has a particular interest in international commercial arbitration with a focus on Caribbean and North American jurisdictions. Desiree is a member of the Caribbean Group of Arbitrators.

Desiree was called to the Bar in St Lucia with the ability to practice throughout the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court.

Desiree was appointed as a Bencher to the Honourable Society of Inner Temple.

Desiree has a particular interest in the challenges faced by small jurisdictions and is an Associate of the Island Rights Initiative, a consultancy and think tank dedicated to helping small island communities facing global human rights challenges. www.islandrights.org/about-us/

Desiree is an affiliate expert of the Centre for Law and Social Justice at Leeds University and has a keen interest in social justice issues.